NEW TOWN COUNCIL.

FIRST REGULAR MEETING HELD THURSDAY EVENING.

Fred Ikeler, Esq., Chosen as Solicitor, Wesley Knorr Retains the Chief of Policemanship.

The first meeting of Bloomsburg's newly elected law makers, occurred in accordance with the custom, Thursday evening last, that being the first Thursday after the first Monday, in April.

Frank Ikeler, who will preside over the deliberations of the Councilmanic body for the ensuing twelve months, was on hand several minutes previous to the time set for the meeting. The members too, were very punctual, each answering to his name at the roll call.

As usual with first meeting, there was quite a crowd on hand, the cramped area of the room being inadequate to furnish even standing room for the throng that sought admittance.

When the appointed time arrived, promptly, and without any hesitation, Mayor Ikeler took the chair, rapped for order and called for the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting. The same were accepted.

The first business was the question of the pay of officers. A motion that the salary of the secretary be the same as last year—$20 per month—was unanimously adopted.

There were two nominations for secretary. Freeze Quick, who has filled the office for three years past, and R. H. Ringler. A vote was taken, the former being elected.

The retaining fee for Town Solicitor was fixed at $25, same as heretofore, and Fred Ikeler was chosen for the office. The other nominations were W. A. Evert and H. A. M'Killip.

It was decided to fix the salary of high constable the same as last year, $50. There were two nominations for the place, namely: Miles Betz and J. W. Gibbs. The vote was four to two, in favor of Betz.

The compensation of the street commissioner called forth considerable discussion, each member giving an opinion. It was finally adjusted by making a reduction from $2.00 to $1.75 per day. There was no dearth of applicants for the position. Fred Neyhard, C. R. Housel and John Waters were placed in nomination A vote showed Neyhard to be the choice, he receiving four of the six. Housel received the other two.

It was moved and seconded that the salary of the chief of police be the same as last year, $40 per month. Carried.

Wesley Knorr was retained in this capacity. He had plenty of opposition, there being three other nominations—Arlington Shultz, H. G. Housel and Frank Baum. The vote was divided between two, Knorr receiving 4 and Shultz 2.

The salary of town treasurer was fixed at one per cent. on all moneys disbursed. Three applicants appeared, E. F. Carpenter, R. R. Zarr and J. H. Malze. Carpenter was elected.

There was no opposition to J. C. Brown for town engineer, and he was unanimously elected. The salary for this officer was not fixed, but figuring on the amount paid Mr. Brown last year, which was $130, the pay will run about 20 cents an hour.

This closed the election of officers, and President Ikeler named the following committees:

Street — Dieffenbach, Cox and Smith.

Fire and Water—Cronin, Cox and Smith.

Light—Cox, Dieffenbach and Cronin.

Finance—John, Hartman and Cronin.

Sanitary—Smith, John and Hartman.

Upon motion of Mr. Smith, and duly seconded, it was decided that the regular business of Council during the coming year would be commenced at 7:30 o'clock sharp, each meeting night, and close not later than ten o'clock.

The following building permits were granted:

Guy Jacoby, for an addition to his house on Pine street.

C. H. Reimard, for building on North West street.

C. H. Reimard appeared and asked that Council have sewer on North West street extended about fifty feet.

Moved and seconded that the matter be referred to street committee.

The question of whether or not trees should be planted in Athletic Park, furnished a subject for a lengthy discussion. It was the opinion of several members of Council that Athletic Association hold a lease on the park, which does not run out till next year, and that trees cannot be planted until the expiration of said lease. The solicitor was instructed to look the matter up.

The case of Ellis Summers was laid over without any action being taken on it. It will be remembered that he was injured by a train while crossing the B. & S. Railroad track, near the Red Rock bridge, several months ago.

The street committee was instructed to look after culvert bridge, at Fifth and East streets, which is reported in bad condition, and also to investigate as to whether or not a guard rail, at the northern entrance to the bridge over the canal, at Catharine street, is necessary.

It was moved, seconded and carried, that crossings be put down at Ohl's alley, on Third street, and on Barton street; that the crossing at Iron and Fifth streets be repaired, and also the one near the Steam Dye Works, on West street.

The street committee is instructed to notify John Custer and James DeWitt to put down pavements in front of their properties on West Third street.

Water meter at town hall reported out of order. Referred to committee on fire and water.

William May and Rhode Tracey appeared before Council in the interest of the Rescue Fire Company. Said Company is desirous that Council satisfy the interest on a loan of $1,000 for a period of ten years. The loan will be paid off by the Company at the rate of $100, and perhaps more a year. President Ikeler said a special meeting would be called to consider the matter. In the meantime the necessary papers are to be prepared.

The following bills were presented and the secretary instructed to issue orders for same:

R. R. John appeared in the interest of a new fire company, the designation of which is to be Good Will Fire Co., No. 4. The promoters of the new organization were former members of Good Will Fire Co., No. 4. The division is the result of dissatisfaction. Inasmuch as the old organization has all the paraphernalia, the new company would like Council to purchase a new outfit, and secure a suitable location. The matter was laid over for the present.

This concluded the evening's business and Council adjourned.

Centralia's Peril.

An attempt to destroy Centralia by fire was made early Saturday morning when six burglars, in order to cover the looting of the Lehigh Valley Railroad station, applied the torch to six buildings and then escaped by fleeing to the mountains. A posse of citizens was hurriedly organized, and had the burglars been found their lives would have been of little value. Four residences owned by George Davis, made fuel for the flames. The structures were quickly burned to the ground. Dr. J. M. Gwinner and Joseph Gerber being badly injured and narrowly escaped death by falling into a cellar of one of the buildings. The station was robbed of goods to the extent of $500, while the loss by fire will reach many times that amount.

For Rent.

AN EXCITING RUNAWAY.

One of the most exciting runaways that has occurred on our streets in a long while took place on Tuesday about half past ten in the forenoon, when the team hitched to Nagles milk wagon, frightened by a sudden break in the harness, started up Main street from in front of Pursel's store, at a break neck speed. Frank Nagle was in the wagon, and exhausted his energy in an attempt to stop the horses, but his strength was unequal to the occasion. In front of Alexander Bros tobacco store, the milk wagon crashed into a one horse vehicle owned by Levi Michael of Beaver township, smashing it to pieces. The milk wagon was overturned, and the horses, breaking loose, continued on their mad run up the street. Nagle came out of the smash up with only a slight abrasion of his left wrist, which is considered a miracle. People who witnessed the start, predicted a fatality. The horses reached the Nagle farm in Center township before they were stopped.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

All men are cordially invited to attend the Men's Meeting in the Y. M. C. A. building next Sunday afternoon at 2:30. There will be special music by the male choir and an address by Rev. J. D. Smith.

Have you purchased a ticket for the second annual dance of the Good Will Fire Company, to be held in the Town Hall Monday evening next, April 16? Indications point to a large attendance. Breon's Orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music. The committee of arrangements is composed of Freeze Quick, Harry Giger, John Gross, R. C. Welliver and Fred C. Hendershott. The other committees are as follows: Reception—Fred Hendershott, F. P. Baum, Jerre Geese, Chas. Ruckle, Wellington Hartman; floor—John Gross, Thos. J. Morris, Frank Roadarmel, C. C. Welliver, Arthur Smith; cloak—C. L. Cronin, Chas. Geese, John Welliver, Wm. Sechrist, Chas. Moore.

W. H. Brooke, general agent for Central Pennsylvania of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, paid over to the widow of the late Edmund McCready of Catawissa, ten thousand dollars on two policies in the above company. The deceased had paid to the company about $1500 in premiums. On Thursday Mr. Brooke received checks for $2000 in favor of Mrs. J. E. Wilson on a policy on her husband's life. He is the manager of agencies in this section, and represents a sound company. He is also an affable gentleman who would like to insure your life, but will not talk you to death to do it. Persons wanting insurance should look up the Fidelity.

After a protracted illness, the greater part of which time, his health was very poor, Rev. J. G. Whitmire, died at his home in this town, early Thursday morning last. He belonged to the Evangelical denomination, and before he was placed on the retired list, was pastor at Waller, Danville, Scranton and other places. A wife and an adopted son survive. The funeral took place on Saturday. The remains were interred in the cemetery near Ebenezer church, in Center Twp.

Archibald McPherson, who about five years ago moved to this town from Shamokin, died at his home on West Fourth street, Thursday morning last. He was sixty-four years of age, and leaves to survive him a wife and four daughters. Mr. McPherson served his country in the civil war, as a member of Company E, Pennsylvania Volunteers.

The Good Will Fire Company last week purchased a lot on Leonard street, upon which will be erected a hose house. The structure, as we understand, will be of brick. It is to be commenced in the very near future, and pushed to a speedy completion. The lot was purchased from Mrs. O'Blosser.

Right Reverend Ethelbert Talbot D. D., Bishop of Central Pennsylvania, administered the rite of confirmation to a class of eleven at St. Paul's church on Wednesday evening. A large congregation was present.

The stock for the new bank at Millville has all been subscribed, and the application has been sent in.

The Leader Department Store.

Springs.

Before the advance in prices we placed an order for springs. This was nearly a year ago. They are all in—150 of them—and we are willing to give you the benefit of our early buying. The sizes are 4x4 ft., and 4x6 ft., full length. In fact, size to fit any bed.

Our special leader is a full-sized spring, woven wire top, $2.20. It would be cheap at $2.75. We can give you a coiled spring, full size, for $2.50. Higher prices for better goods.

Mattresses.

We are sorry to say that we have a larger stock of mattresses than any other store in town.

We can hardly understand how it was done. We placed an order for 150 and received 300. Manufacturer says we gave an order for this many, but our memorandum showed only 150. However, we kept them at a price. From $2.50 to $10.00 the prices run, and if you need a mattress come and make us an offer. The stock must go down to normal.

10-Wire Brussels, the 60c. kind. Have only 100 Yds. Left.

WOOL VELVET CARPETS, Made, Laid and Lined, 90 cts.

Onyx Carpets, 20c. Just Left, 50 Yards.

Furniture.

It is probably useless to tell you that our stock of furniture is new and fresh. Every dealer tells you that. We wish we could talk to you personally, right in our rooms, with the furniture before you. We could show you wherein is the difference between our stock and that quoted at lower prices. We aim first at quality. We don't want the stuff to fall apart within the first month after you get it.

We carry furniture for every room—from the kitchen chair, at 50c. apiece, to a dining room table at $30. Also, all between.

Furniture.

DINERS.—They were $8. We will sell what we have of them for $6 a set.

We have a heavy box diner, which we sold regularly for $14.00 the set. Just a few left, and they will go for $9.00.

We have a full-sized white enamel bed, which we have been selling for $8.00. We will sell a dozen of them at $6.50 apiece. And you know white beds are white beds in these days of high prices.

WILL VISIT DUBLIN.

Queen Victoria Has Decided to Honor Her Irish Subjects.

During Her Visit to the Emerald Isle She Will Be Entertained by the Earl of Cadogan, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom.

George Henry, earl of Cadogan, lord lieutenant of Ireland, who will act as the official host of Victoria during her majesty's visit to Ireland in April, is probably the one individual in the Emerald Isle who is properly equipped for so lofty a service as entertainer of the queen of England and empress of India. Personally the earl has done much to distinguish himself. His high rank in the nobility has given him a certain prominence in conservative politics but he is by no means as great a man as some of his predecessors in the office he now holds. That office is tremendously greater than the man, and few Americans know the extent of its dignity, its retinue and its largess.

Lord Cadogan's establishment is more regal than those of more than half of the kings of Europe. This is as it should be—from the standpoint of royalty—for he is vice regent of Ireland and the official name of his seat is the "vice regal lodge," situated in the most pleasant part of Phoenix park, Dublin, and upheld by a state as magnificent as the impoverished country which supports it is squalid. The household of the lord lieutenant is really a royal court, and no small court at that. A glance at its composition will show that the queen will be subjected to no mean entertainment when she lodges at the palace in Phoenix park.

The salary of the lord lieutenant is $100,000 a year. This sum he is supposed to spend annually with the lavish hand of royalty. He has a private secretary, who is paid as much as is the president of the United States. He has an "additional private secretary" and two assistant private secretaries, who receive large stipends. Among other officers of the court, many of whom are perfectly useless retainers whose functions have long since lapsed, are the Ulster king of arms, the state steward, the comptroller, the gentleman usher, the chamberlain, the master of the horse, several gentlemen in waiting, four aids-de-camp, six "extra" aids-de-camp, physician in ordinary, two surgeons in ordinary, one surgeon to the household, a surgeon oculist, a surgeon dentist, a first chaplain and a subdean. All of these officers of the household are under salaries more or less liberal, the least useful officials receiving the highest pay.

THE EARL OF CADOGAN.

Entertainments at the vice-regal lodge are on a scale commensurate with the dignity of the office. How much this natural dignity will be increased while the queen resides in the lodge may be easily imagined.

Earl Cadogan has been lord lieutenant since 1895. He is descended from a long line of illustrious ancestors, and he is the fifth earl of his title, which was created in 1800. He was born in 1840, and married in 1865 Beatrix Jane, the daughter of the second earl of Craven. His eldest son, Albert, has as sponsor the prince of Wales, and his granddaughter, Sibyl Louise Beatrix, child of his second son, Henry Arthur, is the goddaughter of the duchess of Fife, the eldest daughter of the prince of Wales.

Before his appointment to the vice regency in Ireland Lord Cadogan's places had been under secretary for war, chief secretary for Ireland, lord privy seal and chairman of the grand committees.

AN AMERICAN BOY.

Corporal Tobin Who Was the First One to Reach the Top of Spion Kop.

The ubiquitous American has come to the front again. According to the Illustrated Mail of London Corporal Tobin, an American boy, was the first soldier to reach the summit of Spion Kop. Lieut. Preston Brown, of the Second infantry, now stationed at Fort Thomas, says that there was a young private of the name of Hugh Tobin in the Fifth artillery while he was a member of that organization, and he has reasons to believe that the young American who distinguished himself at Spion Kop is the identical person. Lieut. Brown remembers Tobin as a bright lad and a good soldier. The following extract from a letter written from the seat of war to the Mail was accompanied by a photograph of the hero. "The first position taken by our troops during the assault upon Spion Kop was won by the F squadron of South African light horse, and the first man to gain the summit of the hill was Corporal Tobin, an American. When he reached the crest some distance in front of is comrades he found the enemy had already fled, and, turning, shouted to the men climbing the ascent: 'Come on, there is no one here.' Almost immediately the advance swept the brow of the hill, which was then occupied by them until subsequently relieved by the men of the queen's."

STORY HAS A GOOD MORAL.

Here is the latest story on the man who is too stingy to take his home paper, says the Kansas City Journal. A man who was too economical to take this paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a four-dollar stand of bees, and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and failing to notice a barbed-wire fence, ran into that, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a four-dollar pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the wife ran, upset a four-gallon churn full of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock. In the hurry she dropped a seven-dollar set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled milk into the parlor, ruining a brand-new $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man; the dog broke up 11 setting hens and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts.

No Time to Get Acquainted.

A man employed on the street cars in New York walked into a station house and inquired if a lost child had been brought there. He was shown into a back room, where three waifs had been collected from the streets. After inspecting them in a perplexed way, he asked one: "Are you Johnny?" The child was too sleepy to answer. "I must send for my wife," said the puzzled applicant. The woman came and picked out another child as her own. "You must excuse me," said the man to the police officials. "I work on the surface road, and never see the children except when in bed."

Double Guard, Double Beer.

A war correspondent writes from South Africa to the London Daily Mail: "A certain gallant corps at Chieveley camp provided the guard that should protect our precious beer till Christmas day. In the morning two dozen bottles were missing. 'Disgraceful!' said the authorities; 'double the guard.' And they doubled it. Next day four dozen were missing."

It's Worse For a Woman

To suffer with skin disease than it is for a man, for a smooth skin and a clear complexion are essential elements of female beauty. When the taint of scrofula is in the blood it will be sure to show itself soon or late. Often its manifestations are as repulsive as they are painful. Many people have been cured of scrofula in its most malignant forms by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This remedy is remarkable for its power to purify the blood. It absolutely eliminates the corrupting elements. It makes the blood clean and rich. It increases the action of the blood-making glands, and so increases the quantity of pure blood supplied to the body.

"I will forever thank you for advising me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mrs. Jas. Murphy, of Fonda, Pocahontas Co., Iowa. "It has cured me of chronic scrofula, of twelve years' standing. I had doctored for the trouble until I was completely discouraged. I also had chronic diarrhea for twelve years. I am in good health now—better than I ever was in my life, owing to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took several bottles of the 'Discovery' before I stopped."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a work for every woman, is sent free, on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps (to pay cost of mailing only), for paper edition. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Notes and Comments, Political and Otherwise, on Matters of Public Interest.

The administration is confronted by a very annoying problem. It finds Senators Hoar, Mason and Hale, as well as Edward Atkinson, arrayed uncompromisingly against the policy of imperialism, and yet it is afraid to read them out of the party. Whether they are likely to cause less disturbance inside the party than they would outside is the question Mr. McKinley is trying to help Mr. Hanna to decide.

Senator Cockrell, in the debate on the currency bill, denounced the act of '73 as a crime against man, against God, against humanity, against Christianity, and the Republican senators sat like a band of sneak thieves and gave their assent by their silence. For twenty years after the infamous act was passed not a member of either house or senate would admit that he knew its effect was to demonetize silver, but now such men as Hanna pretend to say that the crime was committed after a full discussion and without protest from the people.

There is no doubt as to where the workingmen of this country stand on the subject of imperialism. The nineteenth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, held recently at Detroit, passed the following resolution: "Resolved, That we are opposed to wars of conquest, either in Africa or the Philippines; that we most emphatically protest against the forcible annexation to this country of either Porto Rico, Cuba, Guam or the Philippines, and that we are equally opposed to any increase in the regular army of the United States beyond the limit of 25,000 enlisted men and officers." No class of men so well understand the dangers of having a large standing army as do those who labor with their hands. Too often have their comrades been shot down in cold blood on slight provocation for laboring men to take kindly to the military idea.

It has been said that the way to reach a man's heart is by way of his stomach, and the quickest way to reach some men's political judgment is through the same avenue. In 1896 no class of men worked harder for Hanna and McKinley than the commercial drummers, but now they see thousands of their number thrown out of employment and thousands more threatened with a like fate by the gigantic trusts that have sprung up under McKinleyism and are defended by Mr. Hanna as being worthy of encouragement. The commercial drummers and hotel men have formed an anti-trust league and incorporated it under the laws of New York. They declare in their manifesto that it makes no difference whether we have free trade or a protective tariff, whether the outlying islands of the sea, proximate or mote, are made colonies or not if the commercial man must get off the road and be deprived of his position. They should have learned long ago which party is the friend of monopoly and capitalism, but as late is better than never, we shall expect them now to turn in to help defeat the money trust and tariff trust which are responsible for most of the others.

No better illustration of the supreme selfishness of a protective tariff has been afforded than that furnished by the action of the Pennsylvania Editorial association at a meeting held recently at Harrisburg. Many of the editors in attendance have for long years been preaching protective tariff and its righteousness. As long as the tariff put up the price of the farmer's plow and the mechanic's plane the Republican editor thought it all right, but since the gentlemen in the protected industries have grown so greedy and so reckless as to begin picking the pockets of their best friends, the editors themselves, the brethren begin to squeal and loudly demand that the government cease giving aid and comfort to that particular class of pickpockets who steel from editors under the sanction of law and in the name of protection. Not a word of protest comes from the Republican editor as long as the protection robber takes from the farmer and the mechanic, but when the tariff baron reaches for the profits of the editor, his action is denounced as a grievous injustice. They declare that such stealing is putting a tax on knowledge, literature, intelligence and so on, and cannot be tolerated. If a tariff could tax out of existence all such foolish and mischievous knowledge and literature as is sent out by tariff organs, it might for once in the world's history be said to have done good and not harm. One of the resolutions passed unanimously by the Editorial association is that "no trust should be fostered by legislation, such as tariff duties; in other words, if trusts are honestly organized to reduce expenses and consequently the price of products, they should depend on their own business sagacity, and not upon protection given to them by the government." In all reason why should not this principle apply to the individual or the corporation as well as to the trust? If a man under a government that grants no special privileges fails to make money in a business venture, it is evidence conclusive that he either has gone into a wrong business or lacks business ability, and in either case why should his neighbors be taxed for his benefit? Taxation for the purpose of paying the legitimate expenses of government is right, but taxing some citizens in order to give the money to others is an outrage. Gradually, but far too slowly, the people are awakening to the criminal folly of taxation under the false pretenses of protection.

Mark Hanna should rebuke the commercial travelers and hotel men who have formed an anti-trust league for the purpose, as they say, of "bringing about a more thorough co-operation in agitating a widespread anti-trust sentiment, and to support with our votes men who make a determined effort to assist commercial travelers from Maine to California in a legislative way." These people evidently believe that trusts are harmful, and they thus differ from Hanna—Both cannot be right. —Sun.

THOUGHT LONGFELLOW LIVING

The Heirs of Indian Who Narrated "Hiawatha" Visit Poet's Widow.

Kaboosa and Waban-nosa, two descendants of Chief Bugwajjine, of the Ojibway Indians, visited Mrs. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow and her two daughters the other day at the poet's old home in Cambridge.

Some weeks ago the aged chief, who told Longfellow the legend of Hiawatha and who regarded the poet as his intimate friend, made arrangements to come from his home on the northern shore of Lake Superior to Boston to visit him, but just before he was to start he enjoined his grandson and nephew to make the visit for him, and they accordingly started. It was not until they reached Boston by way of Montreal that they learned that Longfellow was dead, and their grief was marked.

In company with Francis West, the artist, they drove to Cambridge and were warmly received. They asked to sit at the desk where "Hiawatha" was written, and when they left they invited Mrs. Longfellow and her daughters to visit the tribe.

Electric Lighting.

Over $600,000,000 has been invested in electric lighting in the United States in 12 years. The energy required to make electric lights for the city of New York is 200,000 horse power. Since 1888, when the electric railway was born, more than $1,700,000,000 has been invested in that industry, and now one may travel by electric cars from Paterson, N. J., to Portland, Me., going via New York, with but three small interruptions that collectively are about 14 miles.

The Ritter Murder.

On the afternoon of September 6th, 1897, Amos Ritter, aged seventy years a well-to-do farmer of Delaware township, visited Watsontown and exhibited a large sum of money. At nightfall he started home afoot, early the next morning he was found murdered in a field near his home, and the money gone. The prepetrator of the crime is still at large and the mystery remains unsolved to this day. Since the arrest and conviction of William Hummel for the murder of his wife and children, it has been charged that he was the murderer of old man Ritter. It will also be recollected that Ritter's body was found lying in a field, some distance away from the house, and this is rather a singular coincidence with the Hummel tragedy. It is known that Hummel was in the vicinity of the old blacksmith's home the night he was killed and also that the rag peddlar left the house at which he was staying early in the evening and did not return until midnight. When asked where he had been, Hummel is alleged to have replied, "Oh I was just out calling."

Hummel on his part denies strenuously that he killed Ritter. He has been questioned about it several times and invariably says he knows notaing whatever about it. He declares he was not near the scene of the murder at the time it was committed and asserts that he would own up like a man if he did it, because he don't want to leave this world with a lie on his lips.

"I can only die once," he says, "so what need I be afraid of? If I did it I would say so, but I didn't.

Timely Suggestion,

It is timely, in view of the approach of Arbor day, to call attention to an old act of assembly which provides "that any person liable to road tax who shall transplant along a public highway, on his own premises, any fruit, shade or forest trees, of suitable size, shall be allowed by the supervisor whose roads run through or adjoining cultivated fields, in abatement of his road tax, $1.00 for every four trees set out." The abatement, however, is limited to one fourth of such person's road tax each year. Here is an incentive for the observation of Arbor day in the country.

A Perfect Cathaatic

Is one which does not wrench the system, or leave it weak and exhausted. A perfect cathartic is found in Hood's Pills. They are praised everywhere, and after once being tried they soon permanently take the place of the old fashioned drastic pills, such as "our grandfathers used." Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla and they greatly aid that medicine in its cleansing and purifying work.

Will Test the Bicycle Law.

Wheelmen are interested greatly in the proceedings that have been begun in court at Norristown to test the power of the bicycle side path commissioners to levy a tax on bicycles and idcidentally to determine the constitutionality of the act of assembly under which they were appointed. The outcome of the proceedings will be looked for with much interest by the wheelmen of the state.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Opinions From Various Sources on Questions of the Day.

If Mr. Quay is seated in the United States senate the next legislature will not elect a senator. Mr. Quay will not have enough votes in that body to elect him, but he may have enough without spending several hundred thousand dollars to prevent the election of any one else, and at the end of the session Governor Stone can appoint him again. And that is exactly what is now in contemplation.—Philadelphia Press.

They tell us the tariff does not protect trust! Take two instances that are familiar in this section. The borax trust is selling its product to Americans at seven and one-fourth cents a pound, and to Europeans at three and one-half cents. It is enabled to do this by a tariff of five cents a pound. The steel and wire trust is selling barb wire to Americans who have kindly provided it with a protective tariff for this purpose, at $4.13 a hundred pounds, to Canadians at $3.25 and to Europeans at $2.20.—Clinton Democrat.

Between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 voters will oppose the administration and support anti-imperialists. We will in all probability hold a convention after the regular convention, and we will select a standard bearer and a platform, probably in the way of indorsing an already nominated candidate. The Puerto Rican tariff has had the effect of cutting the Republican party in two. McKinley himself does not know what imperialism is. He is like Hamlet, who, trying to make Polonius believe he is crazy, gazes at the moon, and says, "It is a ship," and again, "it is a rat."—Erving Winslow, Secretary Anti-Imperialistic League.

"President McKinley has committed the first almost irreparable mistake of his administration," and "a mistake big with the possibilities of serious disaster for his party in this year's elections. It may not jeopardize his own nomination," Mr. Kohlsaat goes on, but it "puts a whip in the hands of every Democratic speaker with which to scourge Republican congressmen wherever they appear for re-election. If congress and the president persist in their present course nothing can save the Republican party from defeat next November. It will surely cost them the house of representatives and it may cost them the presidency."—Chicago Times-Herald, Rep.

The ratification of the treaty of peace with Spain brought Puerto Rico and the Philippines under the constitution, according to the precedents established by decisions of the supreme court, and it is impossible to ignore the situation thus created. Puerto Rico should be constituted at once as a territory of the United States. And holding the comfort, happiness and prosperity of Puerto Rico in our hands and possibly the lives of the people, no prejudiced notions of "protection" should lead America into an unjust course toward a defenseless people. Whatever may be done in the case of the Philippines our duty to Puerto Rico is plain and unmistakable.—Meadville Morning Star, Ind. Rep.

There is larger need than ever in our nation's history for the old time resolute independence of character and political judgment which once characterized the American farmer. Fifty years ago the present corrupt party boss, with his assessment of corporations and control of legislation, would not have stood for a moment before the courageous farm judgment of the country. Today this political merchant, who trades in the temple on the political and material fortunes of his fellows, has fastened, octapus like, on the nation and exercises a most dangerous power in state and national legislatures. The sentiment of the farming class is no longer regarded by the political boss with the wholesome dread that ought to exist. This is largely due to a serious decline among farmers of individual independence, of political thought and action, a substitution of mere party for patriotic standards of judgment.—Hon. William D. Hoard, President of the National Farmers' Congress.

The Puerto Rico bill is the first legislative translation of expansion into a language understanded of the people. They see now what all the rhetoric means. Expansion promised glory, and it produces brutality. It is asked for bread and it gives a stone. Under the cruel whip of the organization which controls the organization the party of moral ideas has been driven against the moral sense of the country, has given its opponents heart and hope, and enters upon the presidential campaign divided and discredited. President McKinley's attitude in this whole matter is to be discussed on higher than personal grounds. The poor figure he cuts as a man we pass by, but as the incumbent of a great office he has brought humiliation upon it as well as upon himself. To "stand by" him is impossible for his most earnest supporters, since he does not stand by himself. No man can serve two masters, nor a single master with two minds, neither of which he himself knows. "I had hoped," sneered a Democrat in the house yesterday, "that there was one question of which the president was not on both sides." There was no answer to the taunt, for there could be none. What a pity that Mr. McKinley forgot that a handful of tobacco growers and sugar producers had no right to usurp the office of president of the United States.—New York Evening Post.

A Kansas City (Mo.) negro was a few days ago sentenced to 40 years in the penitentiary for pocketbook snatching. Trusts and monopolies of all kinds are grabbing property by the million, but instead of their members going to the penitentiary they go to congress and the White House and induce the legislative and executive branches of the government to violate the plain mandates of the constitution by imposing a tariff duty against the products of our own country. They will next try their persuasive powers on the supreme court. Will it surrender to the demands of the tobacco and sugar trusts and violate the constitution by declaring a Puerto Rican tariff valid?

EARTHQUAKES ON THE CANAL.

Upheavals of the Soil and Volcanic Eruptions May Cause Trouble.

The liability of the proposed interoceanic waterway to damage from volcanic eruption and earthquake is an important feature of the Nicaragua canal question. No less than 20 important craters have been counted in the mountains of Central America, 13 of which are known to have been in eruption within the last 200 years and eight since 1830. The last noteworthy display was from Ometepe in 1883. This crater is on the island of Ometepe and is situated about ten miles from the channel of the proposed canal through Lake Nicaragua. On the same island is Madera—six miles from the channel—which has been in eruption in this century.

The eruption of Cosiguina, 155 miles from Brito, the western port of the canal, which occurred in 1835, was a terrific explosion. Bowlders were thrown great distances and ashes were carried more than 1,000 miles. Momotombo, on the shore of Lake Managua, 90 miles from Brito, was in eruption in 1852. El Vijo and Chichigalpa, 115 and 110 miles respectively from Brito, have been active in this century. In Costa Rico also are several craters which have been in eruption in this century.

TOO MANY RATS.

They Ran Over Her Bed in a Happy Manner All Night in Central Africa.

At Kawimbe the rats in the house were terrible at night, says "A White Woman in Central Africa." They raced about my room and scampered over my bed in a thoroughly happy manner. I could not sleep at first; but at last I got used to them. I dropped off, only to wake up and find a rat with his foot in my ear.

One night at another station, something larger than a rat dropped from the rafters on my bed and awoke me. I lighted a candle and saw it was a lemur. They are lovely little animals, and are covered with thick fur, like chinchilla, and have beautiful large round eyes.

It looked most fascinating, but, not being sure what it would do next, I thought I would try to send it out. I opened the door which led onto the veranda, and proceeded gently to drive it out; but, alas! it objected to going, and sprang straight on to my shoulder, gripping my arm with its sharp little teeth, and refusing to let go till I well pinched its tail. As it turned round to bite my hand I tossed it out onto the veranda and shut the door.

FINDS A WORLD OF EVES.

Evans Weed, of Newfield, Conn., who plans to transform his farm into a Garden of Eden, has sprung into popularity in a day with many members of the fair sex who want to wed. Mr. Weed was a little fearful that after his Garden of Eden had been completed there would be no Eve to grace it, but his doubts are now at rest upon the point. He never dreamed that Eve was such a common name among women, but every mail brings further evidence.

Letters addressed to Mr. Weed in feminine handwriting have been pouring into the post office at Stanford in every mail for the last few days. One letter was addressed: "Mr. Adam Weed, formerly Evans Weed, Garden of Eden, Stanford, Conn."

Another was addressed "To Adam, Garden of Eden, from Eve." This letter was dated Van Clure Station, Va.

Dewey says that declarations made by him to the effect that he wouldn't accept a presidentional nomination under any conditions, are rescinded, and that he is now out for a place on the ticket. He says the decision was reached after careful thought, and by the entreaties of numerous friends. The announcement has not met with the enthusiasm that was expected.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention at Harrisburg last Thursday, nominated P. Gray Meek of Bellefonte for Auditor General, and N. M. Edwards of Williamsport, and Henry E. Grimm of Doylestown for Congressman-at-large. The following platform was adopted:

THE PLATFORM.

As the representatives of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, renewing our pledge of fidelity to the Democratic principles upon which our national and State life are founded, namely, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of conscience, the preservation of personal right, the equality of all citizens before the law and the faithful observance of constitutional limitations; and having in mind the great questions now before us as a people, we make the following declaration of the principles and policies which should guide our political action.

First. We demand a careful and thorough revision of the tariff and declare in favor of the imposition of such duties only as are necessary for an economical administration of public affairs; and we urge upon the Democratic representatives in Congress that they use their utmost efforts to secure the enactment of a law that will make it obligatory upon the Secretary of the Treasury to place upon the free list at once every article of raw material and every item of manufactured product now used and manufactured by any trust, monopoly or combine whatsoever, and that all corporations and combinations of capital in the nature of trusts intended to control manufacturers, materials or products, shall make comprehensive and accurate public reports of their organization, condition and operation under appropriate penalties for failure so to do.

OPPOSE TRUSTS AND IMPERALISM.

Second. We demand the prompt, efficient and faithful enforcement of the anti trust act of 1890, and such additional and supplemental legislation as will meet the defects thereof as indicated by the Supreme Court of the United States in its recent decisions; and we denounce the combination and creation of corporate trusts and monopolies as contrary to the common law, destructive of individual effort and enterprise and inimical to the welfare of the people and the State.

Third. We are unalterably opposed to the imperialism of the present administration and the Republican party. No commercial advantage can justify our holding the Filipinos as a subject people, and the Phillipine Islands as an imperial colony. We favor granting at once to the people thereof home rule and the right to govern themselves under the protection of the United States.

Fourth. We demand that the solemn pledge made by Congress to the people of Cuba be faithfully observed and their independence granted them in compliance therewith and that the army of the United States be withdrawn as recommended by General Leonard Wood.

Fifth. We demand for the people of Puerto Rico the right of freely importing and exporting to and from any part of the United States; and we denounce the sinister influences that have caused the President to depart from that which he termed a "plain duty.."

HAY-PAUNCEFOTE TREATY DENOUNCED.

Sixth. In onr intercourse, political, financial and commercial, with foreign nations we demand a vigorous American policy. We deplore the subserviency of the present administration to the behests of England and English statesmen, whether the same be intentional or caused by the ignorance of our officials in the State Department. We denounce the Hay-Pauncefote treaty as a complete abandonment of the claims of our statesmen of our right to construct and control an interoceanic canal and as un-American and a base surrender of our inherent right of self-defense.

Seventh. We denounce as at variance with our rights of citizenship and destructive of the rights of a freeman the use of the army of the United States and the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus and declarations of martial law in times of peace in order that labor may be intimidated and labor organizations broken up.

Eighth. We declare in favor of an inter-oceanic canal controlled and protected by this country. No further surrender of Alaskan territory; fortification of strategic points on the Pacific; no entangling alliance with England or any other country, secret or open; free trade with Puerto Rico; independence of Cuba; home rule for Philippine Islands; no subject people; no colonial dependencies; eternal opposition to trusts; a vigorous foreign policy; and an income tax.

Ninth. We favor the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution providing for the election of United States Senators by a vote of the people.

FOR BIMETALLISM AND THE BOERS.

Tenth. We reiterate our faith in the beneficent effects of bimetallism, gold and silver, the money of the Constitution, and believe its recognition and adoption would tend to steady and make permanent the prosperity of our country, and free us from the power of the money trust to precipitate panics at will and make money dear, labor poor and all other things cheap.

Eleventh. We earnestly extend to the brave people in South Africa, now struggling for their liberties and existence, our profound sympathy and declare that the war of conquest and extermination now being carried on by the British empire in its greed for gold and power is a menace to advancing civilization. We favor united action on the part of all the republics of the world to maintain the independent existence of the two republics in South Africa.

Twelfth. We are opposed to the increase of our standing army, as proposed by the Republican party, as a menace to free government, and we insist upon the supremacy of the civil over the military authorities.

BALLOT REFORM FAVORED.

Thirteenth. In matters affecting us as citizens of the State of Pennsylvania we demand the passage, and pledge ourselves to enact. such legislation as will secure ballot reform, personal registration, pure elections, honest counts and true returns. And we denounce the Republican party of this State as being responsible for the present laws, which make elections by the people a mockery by making the ballot box stuffers' infamy and personated officers' fraudulent return the result by which our highest officers are elected.

Fourteenth. We favor legislation to curb the power and punish the oppressive and criminal acts of the trusts and monopolies that have fastened themselves upon our industries in this Commonwealth, to restrain discrimination by common carriers, telegraph and telephone companies, to prevent the combination of corporations by purchasing the stock of other corporations, to prevent the issue of full paid stock except for cash or property at its actual cost value, and to prohibit foreign corporations from doing business in this State except upon an exact equality with those organized under the laws of our Commonwealth.

Fifteenth. We favor municipal ownership of all municipal franchises and public utilities and the passage of legislation to accomplish this purpose.

QUAY'S APPOINTMENT ILLEGAL.

Sixteenth. We call the attention of the voters of the State to and condemn as a flagrant violation of the Constitution of the Commonwealth the unwarranted appointment by the chief executive of M. S. Quay as Senator of the United States, and we condemn his persistent refusal to convene the Legislature to elect a United States Senator, in defiance of the plain mandate of the Constitution.

Seventeenth. We call attention to and condemn his usurpation of the legislative functions in approving parts and disapproving other parts of appropriation bills duly passed by the Legislature, whereby the public schools and charities of our State have suffered.

Eighteenth. We call attention to and condemn his refusal to approve proposed constitutional amendments intended to promote ballot reform, pure elections and honest returns.

Nineteenth. We call attention to and condemn the extravagance that has characterized the administration of our State under Republican administrations. We demand that the tax laws of this Commonwealth be revised so that all legitimate subjects of taxation shall bear their fair share of its burdens.

Twentieth. We condemn the so-called labor legislation of the Republican party of this State as being ineffective and a failure, as always containing an unconstitutional provision intended to make it void if effective. We favor legislation that will put the honest toiler upon an equality before the law with corporate greed and monopoly. We favor legislation tending to reduce the hours of labor in proportion to the progressive increase of the production.

BRYAN THE IDEAL DEMOCRAT.

Twenty-first. As the Democracy of Pennsylvania have since 1896 regarded William J. Bryan as the ideal Democrat, intelligent, honest, able, sincere and loyal in his devotion to Democratic principles and Democratic policies, whose public and private life is without reproach, and whose patriotic, wise and statesmanlike acts and utterances upon all public questions have stamped him as a man of the people, and to whom the great heart of the Democratic and common people of our country looks for its redemption from the spoilsman, its regeneration from the imperialist and its enthrallment from trusts and unlawful combinations, we hereby, in convention assembled, invite him to become a candidate for the Presidency upon the Democratic ticket, and pledge the united support of the delegation from the State of Pennsylvania to vote and labor for his nomination and election.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

A few evenings since a certain young man called on his best girl. The conversation, just when he was about to leave drifted into art, and the young lady said that he reminded her of the Venus de Milo. Thinking that she was alluding to his symmetrical form he was delighted. Arriving at home he consulted an encyclopedia and was mortified to find that the Venus de Milo had no arms. Another case where ignorance was bliss.

A live bird shoot, participated in by eleven members of the local gun club, took place beyond Oak Grove Thursday. C. S. Van Horn and James H. Mercer were tied for first honor, each having hit 8 out of 10. The birds were the strongest and fastest flyers the club has ever had. The record made by E. C. McCabe is the easiest to get at. He shot at 10 birds, now drop the figure 1 and you have the number he hit.

The time is rapidly approaching when we will be called upon to clean up, and it should then be the duty of citizens' of the town to lend a helping hand in this direction, and make our town the par excellence of cleanliness. Not only will it add to the appearance of the town but it will contribute towards a healthy condition. A little bit of exertion will do the work, and the satisfaction will more than pay for the labor expended.

Death has removed one of Center township's most respected residents in the person of Bellington Ruckle who passed from earth at the home of Samuel Creveling yesterday morning. The case of Miss Susan McCaffrey, of Danville, has baffled all the physicians of that town. Upwards of two weeks she has not uttered a sound, nor does she recognize any of the family. The sight of a child being run over and killed by a trolley car in Scranton, which she witnessed, is believed to be the cause of the strange malady.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

GOING TO COLORADO.

For the Sole Purpose of Living in a Political Atmosphere.

At the Age of 71 Mrs. Catherine V. Waite, of Chicago, Has Formed a Law Partnership with Her Husband at Denver.

At the age of 71 Mrs. Catherine V. Waite is about to form a law partnership in Denver, Col., with her husband, former Judge Charles B. Waite. The firm will be C. B. & C. V. Waite, and friends will be disappointed if the aged couple do not make some of the hustling western firms do their best to maintain prestige. Mrs. Waite, who is now in Detroit, has lived in Chicago at various times since 1855, and her home is at present with her daughter, Dr. Lucy Waite, 98 Loomis street, in that city. She has been a lifelong friend of Susan B. Anthony, and is one of the most remarkable women of the west.

Having lived in many states of the union, Mrs. Waite is going to Colorado because she believes it has the only atmosphere congenial to women of business ability and who desire a voice in the administration of public affairs. The versatility of this energetic woman is shown in the fact that she has been a farmer, a teacher, a lecturer, an author, a merchant, a builder, a real estate dealer, a lawyer, a contractor and a manager of large moneyed interests, and has attained eminent success in each of these callings. While attending to her law practice and her large business affairs Mrs. Waite expects to find time to complete the gathering of data for the publication of a scientific work which is to be published in Berlin. In it she will attempt to demonstrate that a woman can be a successful wife, mother and business woman at the same time.

Mrs. Waite was born in Canada and educated in Galesburg, Ill., and at Oberlin college. In the early 60s she arrived in Utah and fought Brigham

MRS. CATHERINE V. WAITE.

Young with relentless vigor, publishing a book entitled "Brigham Young and His Harem." President Lincoln appointed her husband United States justice for Idaho. When they came to Chicago from Rock Island the Waites invested largely in Hyde Park property, and by careful management Mrs. Waite converted it into a small fortune. While her husband was traveling in Europe, from 1885 to 1887, Mrs. Waite took the course in the Union college of law and was admitted to the bar. For several years she edited the Law Times. After Judge Waite retired from the law firm of Cornell, Waite & Jamieson she became the active manager of their affairs. Realizing the possibilities of the world's fair, Mrs. Waite built three hotels. She has some property. A few years ago she was considered quite wealthy, but she and her husband have for several years past been paying off a large indebtedness contracted in building for the world's fair, a process which is not yet completed, and which has very much depleted their estate.

Just now, says the Chicago Times-Herald, Mrs. Waite is enthusiastically engaged in developing her Windsor possessions. She has built seven houses upon the property and is planning several more, attending to all the details herself. It is a novel sight to see this woman, who bears her years so lightly, hustling among her workmen and contractors, giving orders and arranging details of building with the energy and enthusiasm which has characterized her long and remarkable career. Mrs. Waite's varied interests have compelled her to travel extensively, and there is not a detail of the business from Windsor to Colorado and Chicago with which she is not perfectly conversant. While Mrs. Waite has no ambition to go to congress, she declares that she must spend the remainder of her life in a political atmosphere made for women as well as men. Such an atmosphere she finds alone in Colorado.

Tags to Last Four Years.

Payment of the bicycle tax in France is proved by a small plate affixed to the machine every year, but the government now proposes to issue plates good for four years. The holder must have his name and address engraved at his own expense, but he is supplied with new plates when necessary, on producing the fragments of the old. Should he cease to own a bicycle he must at once deposit his plate, to have his name stricken off the list of persons liable to the tax.

PLATE AND PROJECTILES.

Progress in Armor Making Will Continue Till Civilization Puts an End to War.

Further improvements were introduced at Krupp's Essen works, both as regards the composition of the steel used in the plates, a material being obtained of tough nature, yet having great tensile strength with high elastic limit and also a further improvement was effected by carburizing the surface by means of gas cementation instead of charcoal (Harvey method), says Nature.

Briefly it may be said that the latest type of hard-faced plates possess about twice the resistance of the older types of plates. This enables a great saving to be effected in the weight of armor to be used for the protection of the modern warship.

The firm has, however, recently produced capped projectiles, which, with a slightly higher velocity than the average usually employed, readily perforate hard-faced plates, so that before long we may expect the latest type of plates to be found quite vulnerable. Thus the battle proceeds, first the plate wins, then the projectile, until perhaps some day all civilized nations may find it more profitable to revert to a simpler and more effective method of settling difficulties than by trying to kill each other.

IF YOU ARE IN DOUBT

Whether you have kidney or bladder disease, just put some of your urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment, or a milky, cloudy appearance, if it is ropy or stringy, pale or discolored, your kidneys or bladder are sick

Other serious symptoms are pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, a burning, scalding pain in passing urine, or when your urine stains linen.

The one sure cure for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It has cured in many cases where all else failed, and is sold at all drug stores for $1.00 for a large bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

By a special arrangement with the manufacturers, we offer our readers the opportunity of getting a trial bottle of this invaluable remedy absolutely free, which will be sent postpaid to anyone who will send their address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and mention the COLUMBIAN.

The publisher of this paper guarantees the genuineness of this liberal offer.

An addition to the company since its last appearance here is an orchestra of five pieces.

There will be a session of court on Saturday.

Invitations have been issued for a dance, under the auspices of the Bloomsburg Wheelmen, to be held in Evans Hall, Thursday evening, April 19th.

Examination For Post-Office Clerk and Carrier.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that a special examination will be held by its post-office board of examiners in Bloomsburg, on May 2, 1900, commencing at 9 a m., for the positions of clerk and carrier in the post-office.

The examination will consist of spelling, arithmetic, letter-writing, penmanship copying from plain copy, geography of the United States, and reading addresses. The arithmetic will consist of tests in the fundamental principles, extending as far as common and decimal fractions and embracing problems.

The age limitations for this examination are as fellows: Clerk, not less than 18 years. Carrier, between 21 and 40.

Applicants for male clerk and carrier must have the medical certificate in Form 101 executed. Applicants for carrier must be at least 5 ft. 4 in. in height, and weigh not less than 125 pounds. Female applicants are not required to have this certificate executed.

No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed in complete form with the board at the post-office in the city named above, before the hour of closing business on April 28, 1900.

Applications should be filed promptly, in order that time may remain for correction if necessary.

This examination is open to all citizens of the United Stetes who may desire to enter the service, and who comply with the requirements. All such persons are invited to apply, and applicants will be examined, graded, and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to any consideration save their ability as shown by the grade they attain in the examination, but from those certified the Department usually selects for appointment eligibles who are residents of the district in which the vacancies exist.

For application blank (Form 101), full instructions, specimen examination questions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, and the location of the examination room, apply to the secretary of the board of examiners at the post-office in Bloomsburg.

WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, April 9, 1900.

No reduction of war taxes at this season of Congress. That is Mr. McKinley's latest edict, issued in the face of Secretary Gage's statement that the war taxes are piling up a Treasury surplus which may become dangerous by causing a financial stringency. There are three reasons for this edict, neither creditable to the republican administration. The first is, that Mr. McKinley wishes Congress to hurry adjournment, in order that republican Senators and Representatives may go home and try to explain the blunders of his administration, to save him from defeat he fears; the second is that Boss Hanna may have an opportunity to dicker with the big interests affected by the war taxes for campaign contributions, and the third is, that a heavy surplus may be accumulated in the Treasury to meet the extravagant appropriations which are contemplated at the next session of Congress, after the Presidential election. This may be satisfactory to the republican bosses, but how about the people who are paying in the neighborhood of $1 per capita in war taxes which are not necessary to run the government as it should be run?

The republicans were startled and not at all pleased by the announcement of Admiral Dewey that he is a candidate for President, and if not nominated by one of the existing parties is willing to run as an independent candidate. They know that if he runs as an independent candidate he will draw his strength largely from Mr. McKinley and they also know that Mr. McKinley has no surplus strength to lose. Col. Bryan, having already been practically chosen as the democratic candidate, the democrats in Congress regard Dewey's announcement very complacently and rather hope that he will run as independent, although they would be afraid of him if he got the republican nomination.

It seems almost impossible for the Quay case to get before Senate for even a few minutes without stirring up bad blood in some of the republican Senators. The republicans who oppose the seating of Quay are plainly taking advantage of every opportunity that promises to render the slightest aid towards preventing a vote being taken at the present session, having made sure that he would be seated if the vote was taken. Senator Chandler, who is a Quay man, accused Senator Lodge, who is not, with having discourteously refused to answer a question, and Senator Walcott, another Quay man, went a step farther by saying that Mr. Lodge had gone out of his way to "state that which is unqualifiedly false." Later Wolcott apologized. All this and more, because Mr. Lodge sought to use the Philippine bill under his construction of a previous unanimous agreement of the Senate to push aside the Quay case. Democratic Senators have shown a disposition to allow the republicans to fight it out among themselves.

In a speech against the Porto Rico tariff bill Representative Lane, of Iowa, a republican, sounded a warning to his party when he said: "This is a question of sentiment and the people are aroused. It appeals to their judgment, their sense of justice and equity and right, and I now warn you that whenever the standard of justice and right of any political party materially differs from the standard of the people on any great question the people rise up in their might and that party goes down in defeat."

There is more behind the resignation of the office of Assistant Secretary of the Interior by Hon. Webster Davis than his statement that he did so in order to tell the people of this country by voice and pen the truth about the crushing of two republics in South Africa by Great Britain, with the moral if not the actual support of the McKinley administration. It is well known in Washington that Mr. Davis has officially stood in the way of several big schemes, connected with public lands and the pension system, and that there has been almost constant friction between him and Secretary Hitchcock on account of them. Members of the administration know that Mr. Davis has in his possession several chunks of political dynamite. That is why his resignation was considered at a cabinet meeting. His championship of the Boers is disagreeable to the administration, but fear that he may do worse prevents any attempt to interfere with him.

Senator Culbertson, of Texas, made a hit with his maiden speech in the Senate, which was against the Porto Rico bill and in favor of the democratic contention that the Constitution follows the flag. The prediction is heard on all sides that Mr. Culbertson will become one of the democratic leaders of the Senate.
